Yeah I feel like a force of nature
Could make you sing like a bird released
If what you seek is a wise man's treasure
You know it's buried beneath your feet

You know you look like a faded picture
I see the cracks freezing on your skin
And as the world slowly turns it hits you
That the thieves of the night are coming to take you in

You're smokin' all my stash but burning all my cash
I bet ya knew right away it's all over
Town and the sun's going down
And the days of your easy life

I bet you knew right away
You dope you don't know where it's at
It's all over town and the sun's going down
And it's a high time to pray

Yeah I feel like a force of nature
Could make you sing like a bird released
If what you seek is a wise man's treasure
You know it's buried beneath your feet

You know you look like a faded picture
I see the cracks frozen on your skin
And as the world slowly turns it hits you
That the thieves of the night are coming to take you in

You're smokin' all my stash, but burning all my cash
I bet you knew right away, it's all over
Town and the sun's going down
And the days of your easy life

I bet you knew right away
You dope you don't know where it's at
It's all over if you're beggin' me please
And you're on your knees and you pray yeah, yeah

You're smokin' all my stash you're burning all my cash
I bet you knew right away it's all over

Town and the sun's going down
And it's a high time to pray

It's me you want
