they took my faith they put it in a headlock and they sealed my fate somewhere inside the world in which they live because i failed they constantly ignore me and they told me i lost my mind but i believe that i rule the world

i'm singing out my revolution song like nothing else matters
and you can pitch your gold against my soul but i bet you get shattered and there's a million houses in my heart it won't be long
till i solve my mystery

it would for me what do i believe in and a masterkey
is somewhere inside of the world in which i live and what for they they will speak for no-one and i may have lost my mind but i believe that i rule my world

you can pitch your gold against my soul

(guitar solo)

and i'm singing out my revolution song

but you gotta get shattered
and it won't be long
till i solve my mys
till i solve my mystery
