You sing, you shout, you turn the world around
Yeah, we come all together for you
You let me see the man I'm gonna be
Yeah, we come all together for you

Remember to shine
Let my love take you high
You've nothing to lose
You're just a boy with the blues

You take a vow never to back down
Yeah, we come all together for you
And my dreams are bound to come true somehow
Yeah, we come all together for you

Remember to shine
Let my love take you high
You've nothing to lose
You're just a boy with the blues

Remember to smile
Let my love take you high
I've nothing to lose
I'm just a boy with the blues, yeah

Come on together, come on together
Come on together for you
Come on together, come on together
Come on together for you

Come on together, come on together
Come on together for you
Come on together, come on together
Come on together for you

Come on together, come on together
Come on together for you
Come on together, come on together
Come on together for you

Come on together, come on together
Come on together for you
