I'm all over my hearts desire
I feel cold but I'm back in the fire
Out of control but I'm tied up tight
Come in come out tonight

I try hiding so I can't see yer
Locked away but I still can't see yer
I'm out of time now I'm in the light
All in all out tonight

Turning the day 'round honey
You're all I can see in my mind
A storm is coming you'd better
Get yourself back inside
[The Shock Of The Lightning Lyrics On ]

Chorus:

The shock of the lightning
(Lightning)
It's not very frightening
(Frightening)
When you hear
Two dogs fighting
(Fighting)
In your mind

So should
I've been listening
(Listening)
Your pathway
Is glistening
(Glistening)
And you don't know
What you're missing
(Missing)
Now you're out of time
