I'm over my heart's desire
I feel cold, but I'm back in the fire
Outta control but I'm tied up tight
Come in, come out tonight

Coming up in the early morning
I feel love and the shock of the lightning
I'll follow into the blinding light
Come in, come out, come in, come out tonight

Love is a time machine
Up on the silver screen
It's all in my mind
Love is a litany
A magical mystery
And all in good time
And all in good time
And all in good time

I've got my feet on the street but I can't stop flying
My head's in the clouds but at least I'm trying
I'm outta control but I'm tied up tight
Come in, come out tonight

There's a hole in the ground into which I'm falling
So God speed to the sound of the pounding
I'm all in to the blinding light
Come in, come out, come in, come out tonight

Love is a time machine
Up on the silver screen
It's all in my mind
Love is a litany
A magical mystery
And all in good time
And all in good time
And all in good time

It's all in my mind
Love is a time machine
Up on the silver screen
And all in good time

And all in good time
And all in good time
