I'll tell you a secret that no one else knows,
Cuz I can put on a big fuckin show.
Deep conversations about the hardships of life,
But when you turn around I will sharpen my knife.
Goddamn you fuckin dumb ass you have faith in human beings?
You're so easy to take advantage of it won't even hurt
my feelings.
Cuz I'm cold to the world and what it handed me.

Look at you addict piece of shit
You want trust and love, you can forget it
This is the life that you chose to live
It's not my turn to forgive.

Whether you're a friend or a foe,
Or a lover the other day.
I'm afraid that you're to real now,
And I've got to push you away.
You look sad as the night is at an end,
Now I'll turn my back on you because I'm your friend.

Look at you addict piece of shit
You want trust and love, you can forget it
This is the life that you chose to live
It's not my turn to forgive.
