All that I know seems to me is over now
What past has brought it will be redefined
When the quantity of exceptions is raising
When we can't safe answer all our questions
Where the period is ending and the normal science Attacked with new theories is under control of the revolutions
It's necessity to move the borders we know to another direction
Move the borders of our comprehension
What used to hold is alternated Guessed reality controverted when we change the kind of our questions
We let arise new situation
Conceptual chaos as foreshadowing of abnormal condition
Lead the man to new understanding
Suddenly we know a new part of reality
Until the time of next revolution
What alternated believe in description of reality is full of revision and changes of statements
When we accept new comprehension
We have to redefine our sources of information
Teach me to know
Show me examples
In altered form I'll refer to next generation
I reconstruct the past
It's misty and grey
I form it as real as the god who I can pray to...
