I love you Dawn
The strength of ten
Men in your hands
You understand
It was another time
All is not lost
It was another place

And gone to waste
Beneath the tall trees I believe
Can't do together if we try
There's nothing you and me

The day is long and the nights are cold
I don't want to see you cry
Just a song to warm your soul

You understand
I love you Dawn
Men in your hands

The strength of ten
It was another tear
It was another time
And we will shine

Beneath the billboards and the hordes
All is not lost
Magazines and rock awards

We can't afford to pay our bills
The day is long and the nights are cold
I don't want to see you cry

Just a song to warm your soul
I love you Dawn
You understand
Men in your hands
The strength of ten

It was another tear, another year
All is not lost

Another time
And we will shine
