Deliberate provocation
Is what you gave to me
You got me going
You got me going

How could such a simple thing
Get so out of control?
You let me down again
You let me down again

I know my place inside your heart
The painted figure that glows in the dark
No, you're not mysterious now
And I don't worship that sacred cow

In my head
In my head
In my head

You'd never know it
You'd never know it

I went home in a jealous rage
You were rolling on the glass in a younger age
You know what's good for me
I know you're too good for me

'Cause I have seen inside your heart
Religious figures that glow in the dark
No, you're not too precious now
And I don't worship that sacred cow

Go and try as you may
To get a sharp shift on Judgement Day

You let me down again
You let me down again

And I know my place inside your heart
The painted figure that glows in the dark
No, you're not too precious now
And I don't worship that sacred cow

Go and try as you may
To get a sharp shift on Judgement Day

Sacred cow
Judgement Day
Coming your way
