There's a temptress, a beauty, she lives close by
Many men shamed time after time
Clever girls build their webs near the light
Gives them choice of what to bite

The glare's so tempting from underneath
The glare's so tempting from underneath
Take note, take note, take note
Ignore the silk, beware the teeth!

No one's safe in Soho
No one's safe in Soho
No one is safe so
Somebody please turn off the light

High heels, lips, nails, town painted red
First time Charlie's up Mary Rose he said
Heart pumps, veins thump deep into the night
A platter fresh for her to dine

Now she's on top and he's underneath
Yeah she's on top and he's underneath
Take note, take note, take note
Ignore the silk beware the teeth!
