Life - The endless way to go
Death - Soon I leave to die
Life - Is the only way I know
Death - About death they lie
Soon - I pass away
Experience - What will be next?
The end - In a coffin I will lay
Because - I passed away today

Hell or heaven, I know there is something there
Black or white. Even color I will share
The end or start? I'm hoping for a decent death
Pain or pleasure, I thought life was the one that hurted
!?

When I entered death
I felt the torture start
Death is more than pain
My body screams insane
I consider this as hell
Through pain and heat I dwell
An offer for the master
The one who's here in charge
The one I obeyed on Earth
His servant I will be
In hell I burn to see...
The pain I deserve...
