Why are my words so twisted
That answers turn into questions
Misunderstanding, they keyword
Finding answers, my point of view...
So it seems, its black
Can't explain, images of torture
Expressions of hate
See myself on the edge of suicide
So do you, so do I

So do you and so do I
I can't reveal my fear
My anger to the one I hate
The innocence from which it starts
Grows out to be reality
I can't reveal my pain
My anger to the one I hate
Breaking these rules of this morbid game
See it as a relief of mind
See it as a relief

"Slave of impure behaviour
Baptized in unholy water
Caught in a maze of fire
Searching for answers"
Artificial ecstasy...

Obsessed, dedication, violence and trust
My darkest emotions...arise
Obsessed, loyalty, violence and trust
My hate...is no obscure
Possessed, reality, violence and trust
My pain...I can't reveal
Confess, violation, hate and trust
My fear...I can't reveal

Hope you die, so do I
Hope you die in pain
