[bonus track]

Death and terror, words divine
I seek the enemy, across the line
To fight and kill I was born
To slay the innocent without scorn

Walking the battlefields
To check out my yields
The death I have caused
All slain without loss

We will meet again
Until the battle
We will fight again
Until the battle

Come in and join the fight
Gathering in the night
Our swords shine, in the light
Enemies froze with fright

I kill without conscience
I'm under control
Don't tell me who to fight
I won't obey at all

The fight has begun
Already we have won
Victorious and proud
All warriors will shout

Until the battle
Until the battle
Until the battle
