I can't regret this decision now
I can't regret this decision now
No, I can't regret this decision now
Because You love me like no one else
No, I can't regret this decision now
Because You love me like no one else

His feet sink into the sand
His heartbeat quickens
To the pace of the ocean
I love being alone, he lies
As thoughts of grace carry out
With the tide tonight

You can take back all you've learned
You can forget all you've heard
You can take back all you've learned
Just remember some things come first

His feet sink into the sand
His heartbeat quickens
To the pace of the ocean
I love being alone, he lies
As thoughts of grace carry out
With the tide tonight
