The solemn faces pass me by

The grave [] buried smiles

A crowded train to take me home

If I close my eyes a minute

See a world within a minute

Standing on the road

my wings to take me high

If I could fly

See the world beneath me

Feel as though I'm set free

Oh, if I could fly

A simple smile can change a day

An understanding look can say

I know exactly how u feel

But we have learned to build our walls so very strong and very tall for fear of what the world might steal

If I close my eyes a minute

See a world within a minute

standing on the road

my wings to take me high

If I could fly

See the world beneath me

Feel as though I'm set free

Oh, if i could fly

If I could fly

See the world beneath me

Feel as though I'm set free

Oh, if I could fly
