Death is the hunter
Breathing down your neck
The Force that will tear
Your worthless life to shreds

The stench of fear upon your dying breath
Charging forth
I am the hunter by death possessed
Prowling, insane from hunger

By terror blessed
I raging thirst for death
Behold the endless depths
A surge of power

In darkness I descend
Your souls are mine
Together down the line

Through your death I am reborn
In a crimson tide
There will be no mercy given
From my blood-stained scythe

Death is the hunter
I am the hunter
Stalking defenseless prey
Through your death I am reborn

In me you'll find your bane
Watching as the innocent they flee
You know there's no escape
Beware my killing spree

Through your death I am reborn
In a crimson tide
There will be no mercy given
From my blood-stained scythe

The grin across my face
The hunger in my stare
As I feed upon your fear

I am the hunter

Your worst fucking nightmare
Death your release
I will set you free
Death is the hunter

Breathing down on your neck
The force that will tear
Your worthless life to shreds
I am the hunter

Stalking defenseless prey
Through your death I am reborn
In me you'll find your bane

Through your death I am reborn
In a crimson tide

The grin across my face
The hunger in my stare
As I feed upon your fear

Your worst fucking nightmare
I will set you free
Death is the hunter

Breathing down on your neck

Stalking defenseless prey
Through your death I am reborn
