Straight down to Hell I will go, I'll take you down with me...

Blood of divine, holier than mine...Wine of Delight I drink to ease my guilt.

Hoping to see bodies to bleed. Hoping to see the beautiful art I've built.

Pose! Pose naked with blood as your skin!

Crawl! Crawl hated, my expression of sin!

Die, die, die, die!

Drain! Drain your soul with the wounds I provide!

Take! Take your place in my gallery and die!

Feel...your breath: getting stabbed away!

Our heartbeats...synchronized...while I make you pay!

Never...again...shall you spread your filth!

Bleeding...heart sympathy...shall you never get, from me!

How can the rest just live in silence

When the children are being injected with their rotting venom?

Led to death with 'belief' as the guiding light!

Trust and Deceit, hand in hand. Born into slavery

Nailed on these walls are the scum of humanity

Parasites of life left for generations...to see!

Straight down to Hell I will go, I'll take you down with me...

One last statue I'll put on there, showing the face of vengeance!

Feel...your life...getting washed away!

Our heartbeats...synchronized...while I make you pay!

Never...again...shall you spread your filth!

My gallery is now complete...and my vengeance dies with me!
