Lyrics: Tomas Lindberg/Marko Tervonen

Title: Magnus Olsfelt

A wicked heart prowls through the void
That lives dormant deep inside
In violent rapture now behold
The harvester of souls
At the seven gates the seal is broken
As sulphur dreams unfurl
Into the depths of no return
Your souls will be cast to burn

Bridge:

Suicide, dead inside
Inject your horrors' blood
Hell unfurls on the world
But no-one seeks the cause
To decide if the life
Is worth all its' pretend
Hollow shells left to die

Seeking still the spark of life

Chorus:

As I cast aside the chains of life
A world below for us Â– born to die
As I cast aside the chains of life
A world below for us Â– born to die
It takes a poisoned heart to see the light
Buried deep inside
Spewing forth the burning black
Now there is no turning back

(Bridge & Chorus)

(Lead: Marcus Sunesson)

Afraid inside Â– born to die Â– left aside
Afraid inside Â– born to die Â– left aside
Staring down into a world below

(Lead: Marcus Sunesson)

(Chorus)
