You came just like the wind
To brush your fingers on my skin
You tend the light the spark
That ignites, the firestorm
And you leave
You're not there
I know that no one
Will tie you down
You play with my emotions and say that it's love

Hey, I know I will never forget you (oh no)
Hey, I know nothing will ever change
(oh no, no)

Inside I'm bathed by the light, of memories
And I search between the clouds for something, just a kiss Still, I sing for you and I die for you Nothing'll be the same
after you
Maybe your memory
will brush it's fingers on my skin

Hey, I know I will never forget you (oh no I won't)
Hey, I know nothing will ever change
(oh no)(oh notning)
