I have sought forever it seems
Yet I haven't found any reason for your existence
You are all of the same greedy flesh
All pretending to care as you stab your neighbor in the back
Foul is the human race and so must its ending be

A nuclear blitz of relentless death That only leaves a faint memory of and endless trail of dead bodies
I have set out to ruin you, to destroy and plunder your abode
I have come to bring an end to you and your existence
An existence that for so many years

Has brought me nothing but bitterness and hatred
Lust and apathy, greed and hopelessness
They are my allies, they are the only things that can be trusted
And apart from death the only rules of life
I long for the day when I will cut you down
I long for the day of earth's destruction

I long for to see your children cry as all they have ever known disappears
I long to see you cling to your lives as I take them
The realization of your weakness and the punishment
For you pointless existence
I live only to watch you die
With ever breath comes the thought of killing you
All without hesitation or doubt
