So I don't know, What to do
Since you are wasted and falling down
Say, Say don't turn, Don't, Don't walk out
But all these signals are fading out

Do you think you're invincible?
And above it all, Chase that drink down
Soon it will make you,
See your world come slowly crashing down

Sometimes it's, Better to Leave all these questions and answers to
Your actions, I pray someday
You'll see the damage you've done to me

Do you think you're invincible?
And above it all, Chase that drink down
Soon it will make you,
See your world come slowly crashing down

Tempt fate
Take a dance with death
Can you feel now?
What I see, You know, You needed me
Fall down, It's over now

You know that, You take these risks
Something like this is just so foolish
You're so young, And naÃve
Why can't you open your eyes and see

Do you think you're invincible?
And above it all, Chase that drink down
Soon it will make you,
See your world come slowly crashing down

Tempt fate
Take a dance with death
Can you feel now?
What I see, You know, You needed me
Fall down, It's over now

The time it has come (time has come)
I've spent way too much (spent way too much)
Time on you (time on you)

Tempt fate
Take a dance with death
Can you feel now?
What I see, You know, You needed me
Fall down, It's over now
