Tonight it feels so right
And as we speak our worlds collide
Into the darkness of this moonlit sky
You know it's been so long
And all the time that I've been gone
I've been thinking about you baby all night long

I want to follow you, I'll follow you with open arms
tonight
I want to be with you, I'll be with you forever (hold on)
I want to follow you, I'll follow you this time it seems so right
I want to be with you, I'll stay right here, If only for
tonight

So I'm walking around tonight I'm stumbling back and forth and falling Thinking about what you've been saying all night
You know it's been so long
And all the time that I've been gone
I've been thinking about you baby all night long

I want to follow you, I'll follow you with open arms
tonight
I want to be with you, I'll be with you forever (hold on)
right
I want to be with you, I'll stay right here, If only for
tonight

I'll wait outside, In the dead of night
I'll wait for you
This time around I'll give you everything, And I won't let you down

I want to follow you, I'll follow you with open arms
tonight
I want to be with you, I'll be with you forever (hold on)
right
I want to be with you, I'll stay right here, If only for
tonight
