It's Friday night in a lonely town,
I wonder what you're doing in the city
It's getting late, And nobody's around,
I'm staring at your picture baby, You're so pretty
I get the call from the 315,
They're dancing to the rhythm on the south side
It's Friday night and I'm feeling alright,
And that's the bottom line, It going to be a good time

Don't waste and walk away
Tomorrow might be too late
Let's show this world tonight

Take a look at the shine in my eyes
Hear a subtle warmth in my voice
Make a choice, Fall away with me,
If this is where you want to be
Take a chance to shine like the stars,
Don't be afraid to follow your heart
Make a wish, baby, Count to three
And you'll be where you want to be

I'm in the car with my collar popped,
Dropped top, Easy, riding low in the seat
I get a wink from a cutie in a cab,
And I can read a smile, A mile across Main Street
And I can see it By the look in her eyes,
That someone's trying to have a good night
She's looking tight, And I'm feeling alright,
And that's the bottom line,
It's going to be a good time

Don't waste and walk away
Tomorrow might be too late
Let's show this world tonight

Take a look at the shine in my eyes
Hear a subtle warmth in my voice
Make a choice, Fall away with me,
If this is where you want to be
Take a chance to shine like the stars,
Don't be afraid to follow your heart

Make a wish, baby, Count to three
And you'll be where you want to be

What do you, see in me?
I'll get by, baby you're all I need [x4]

Take a look at the shine in my eyes
Hear a subtle warmth in my voice
Make a choice, Fall away with me,
If this is where you want to be
Take a chance to shine like the stars,
Don't be afraid to follow your heart
Make a wish, baby, Count to three
And you'll be where you want to be
[X2]
