Can't wake from this dream, bitter uncertainty.
Begin to shake and lose control, into my own reality.
Life has begun to take it's toll, regain sanity.
Born alone, I'll die alone, save me from this misery.

I'll go, I'll see everything.
I'll know, I'll know everything.

Can't wake from this dream, bitter uncertainty.
Begin to shake and lose control, into my own reality.
Life has begun to take it's toll, regain sanity.
Born alone, I'll die alone, save me from this misery.

I'll go, I'll see everything.
(I'm gonna see everything, I'm gonna know everything)
I'll know, I'll know everything.
(I'm gonna see everything, I'm gonna know everything)

Watch it all fall apart.
I suffered through a thousand broken hearts for you.

GO!

A thousand hearts for you!
