I hurried up I didn't wait, I pushed and poked at my own fate, the way things were going I thought it would be alright. But life, you see is different through the eyes of those who don't believe, in the right to be anything that you conceive.

Feeling trapped inside my mind, behind these walls I cannot find myself. I reach out to you again, help me up my only friend. I need you now so don't let me down. Falling fast, away from you. There was nothing left for me to do. Sometimes I wish I could take it all back. If everything I've ever read, everything I've ever said meant nothing to you, please hear me now.

Feeling trapped inside my mind, behind these walls I cannot find myself. I reach out to you again, my only true friend. I need you now so don't let me down.
