Perceiving the stopping o time as the world devours itself
Beings are trapped and suspended
Disintegration of existence
Walls of reality collapse portals of torment are opened Internal remnants spewed desolate psyches constructed
Decimating all structure nullifying human conception

Disembowelment of earth infernal feastings Ripping apart lucid figure conscious framework ruptured
Mass of contorted minds
Forms of mortal breed
Lost
Within
Renewal of self Deformed visions altered through time
Converged flesh consumed by the void
