You are the true suck
And now your lives are crushed
Admit it
Baseball bat hitting your teeth
People want to see you bleed
Hunted
You can't hide your lie
You know that you should die
No excuse
The sanction knows what's up
To let the world know you suck
Your lives are not pure
You cannot deny the facts
That prove you wrong
One more reason to show
How twisted your morals are
Soon this life will turn on you
Showing you that you're not true
Your lives are lies
Respect is something you don't even have
Is something you'll never understand
Narc
Our world has no place for you
There's only room for the true
We hope your lives lay to waste
