"The Endless Regression Of Mind"

Prophetic visions of nothingness coming to terms with extinction

Fears of a forgotten existence decimating habitual methods and ways

Massive conception perverted in distortion social prosthesis physical manipulation

Intoxicated by difference

Forced into separation

Gluttons of appearance rotting from within

A new meaning of worth

Mutation of the flesh contortion of self

Finite reality proposes a force

A new quest of superiority to strive for the unique

Flaws of evolution imperfect formations of man

Manipulation by social device hiding from the unknown

Through synthetically manufactured answers

An endless regression of mind

A sickening essence of reality

Victims of our own failure

Unable to comprehend truth

Deceived by infinite complexity

Molding the physical realm

Convinced by false powers we hold

Into a deficient conclusion

Validity of knowledge will fall
