I exist and I breathe the air
Although I don't belong
I am beast by society
And I'm growing strong
I am the evil that you fear
The pain that you despise
I am of flesh and blood like you
I am the truth telling lies

I'm the type of person

Your mama warned you about
And when I come even close to you
You want to scream and shout
And when I slowly slaughter you
In your wildest dreams
It is the still of the night
That echoes in your screams

Beast by society
