Lying in this darkened room
Makes me go insane
Remembering the times we had
I'm crying out your name
- I won't forget

You left me here in solitude
Made me feel so small
Making ashes of my life
You have caused my fall
- somehow I do regret

In my memory there are words

Better left unsaid
You went away, I'm all alone
And still you're in my head
- poisoned memories

I've got my feet back on the ground but still I'm feeling sad
The hate is gone, what's left behind
Disappointment in my head
- disappointment in my head
