[Music: M. Tervonen. Lyrics: M. Olsfelt/M. Tervonen]

A starving restless soul - As fueled by years of wasted time

Dying to live like a burning flame - So come beloved Hunger!

So desperate and filled with pain

In chaos nights I tried to die - Feeding my disease
A deadly need

When this hunger is pleased then I shall die Living like this is the end - I want to feel it all

Shatter my world of glass - And cut open it's prison walls

All logic now left behind - So come and take me away

Starvated soul - A hidden pain consumes my heart

As fueled by years of wasted time

Hiding my soul away

So touch me with your careful lips - And open the doors to insanity

A yearning growing wild and strong - The need to lose all control

Shatter my world of glass - And cut open it's prison walls

All logic now left behind - So come and take me away

Now - The time has come to slay my fears

Of what I hold behind those tears

Don't know - Don't care what I will find

Behind these eyes the future lies / Nothing ever seems to satisfy

The feeling of loss is so great that the very life in me has drained

And starved to Death

I long for something else and I am prepared to take the steps

That will cost me more than you

To leave everything behind, burn down my past and rise above

Everybody that I once have been
To join the hunger inside - Please be my guide on this Long and strange journey through my life

Shatter my world of glass - And cut open it's prison walls
All logic now left behind - So come and take me away

Now - The time has come to slay my fears
Of what I hold behind those tears
Don't know - Don't care what I will find Behind these eyes the future lies / Nothing ever seems
to satisfy

[Lead: M. Sunesson]

[Repeat chorus]

I drift on... - Consumite Furore!
