There's a man who stands on his own
Is he where he wants to be
No one knows
He's the one who laughs through it all
He sees the water bead should it flow

Chorus

You, yeah you
All these things that you take for granted
You, yeah you
You've had everything you demanded

Something says to follow your heart
But yet you push them all away

And love it knocks at your door
But will you answer it or not

Chorus

You just shut it out
Lost boy in the crowd
But do you really know
Who you're saving it all up for
Go on take a chance
Reach out and take a tender hand
You never know you might find out
It's what you needed

Chorus
