In another life time
Could you and I do it again
In another life time
Another try
Do you think it be the same
But who am I lying?
It takes one look straight in the mirror
To know I was fighting
To hide the truth
But why I'm hiding?

I'm holding on to my man
To the memory of you
Holding on to my man
To the only one
I'm holding on to my man
To the memory of you
Holding on till I land In your arms
I'll hold till then

I'll hold till then ...I'll hold till then...

On and on
I'll be holding on

In another life time... In another life time...
