I've played all my cards, I let down my guards
I played games I watched myself falling apart
Was looking for love That feats me like glove
But nothing I did it was never enough Imagined I could Find someone that would Love me and be there I misunderstood
I imagined I could Find someone that would Love me and be there I misunderstood
Was going through hell And always I failed
To find someone I love Who loves me as well
(Who loves me as well...)
Imagined I could Find someone that would
Love me and be there I misunderstood
Was going through hell And always I failed
To find someone I love Who loves me as well
(Who loves me as well...)
I've been everywhere I know that love is there
somewhere
I've been everywhere I know that love is there
somewhere
I've been everywhere I know that love is there
somewhere
I've been everywhere I know that love is there
somewhere
I went through it all I tried not to fall S.o.b's wanna be's
I met them all Everyone wants to have fun
But they will forget you the minute they're done
And just when you dare To think that they care Issues and issues will always be there They're scared to admit Their fear to commit
I find myself find myself having to quit (find myself...)
Imagined I could Find someone that would
Love me and be there I misunderstood
Was going through hell And always I failed
To find someone I love Who loves me as well
(Who loves me as well...)
I've been everywhere I know that love is there
somewhere
I've been everywhere I know that love is there
somewhere
I've been everywhere I know that love is there

somewhere
I've been everywhere I know that love is there
somewhere
