How could it be that there's an end to what was us
And there's forgiveness to each moment that will pass
How could you spend another moment alone
And how could it easily be thrown

If you were my only one
Only one who won't run
I'd keep you close
If you can hear my voice
If you were my only one
I'd know my life begun
That day I'll see the sun
If you were the one

If you were my only one
Only one who won't run
I'd keep you close
If you can hear my voice
If you were my only one
I'd know my life begun
That day I'll see the sun
If you were the one
