Memories are coming my way and I freeze
I can not forget! I'm touching your face
I'm smelling your sweet fragrance
Reach out to embrace
But only the face of emptiness

I wish you were here
I wish you were here
Do you ever think of me
Like I have you in every thought
In every wish

I'm wishing you were here
I wish you were here
I wish you were here
There's no place to hide
Now that our love has died

My arms are open wide
In case you wanna stay right by my side

By my side
You don't care
I'm bleeding here
I'm filled with fear
And I swear I ran out of tears
I lay on the floor
I can't stand it anymore
You choose to ignore

I wish you were here like you were before
I wish you were here
I wish you were here

But if you knew how much
I love you how much
I wished you
No you never knew
What I did for you how much
I wished for you
Wished you were here
I wish you were here

I wish you were here
