I'll be gone now either way that the wind blows

I'll be back though leave a light in the window

When the waves die down I'll be halfway around and I'll call you

When the sun blocks out hold the radio up to the phone

I was dreaming I was heading west thirty days faster

Had a fever woke up in a sweat bailing out the water

Can't go on, can't go back

Can't go on

Can't go back

Heard your voice coming through the noise

Wrote it in the radio log

Hurt my head wondering what you said

So I threw it overboard

Can't go on, can't go back

Can't go on, can't go back

Can't go on

Can't go back

I was dreaming I was heading west thirty days faster

Had a fever woke up in a sweat bailing out the water

Can't go on

Can't go back
