"Dying Young"

Think how it feels to fly high
Cause there's something you can't buy
The floating version of truth
Isn't good enough anymore

The ones that are as dumb as they come
Are dying young
We're the one that are still having fun

We are culturally programmed
You only catch if you cast
The floating version of truth
Isn't good enough anymore

The ones that are as dumb as they come
Are dying young
We're the one that are still having fun

We're all nice to ourselves
But we still go overboard
We need to learn how to ignore

Turn it up, turn it down
Take a step inside
Take control of your mind
Look up
You've gotta look down
We're the ones that are still having fun.
