"Fifteen"

We're all insane and it doesn't even matter and You'll live a long time if you'll just understand
We're all the same and it's starting to matter and You'll live alone forever, I won't be mad

You're my favorite, fifteenth one in a row
And you'll know it until the day I let you go

It's all a game and you win just to shatter it
The broken pieces don't mean it can't be saved
I feel your pain and it doesn't matter if
The whole time you've been thinking you will escape

You're my favorite, fifteenth one in a row
And you'll know it until the day I let you go
You're my favorite, fifteenth one in a row
And you'll know it until the day I let you go

Today is the day that I have to let you know
