I am on your side
You are my friend
And I love my friends
Time is overrated
We're throwing quarters
In ice trays again

We need to find a way
To neverending happiness
I think we're on our way
But you're not taking me seriously
We need to find a way
To neverending happiness
I think we're on our way
Never throw your feelings away

I am on your side
You're my ride home
When I die tonight
We have not a thing to fear
Except ourselves
And the things we've thrown away

We need to find a way
To neverending happiness
I think we're on our way
But you're not taking me seriously
We need to find a way
To neverending happiness
I think we're on our way
Never throw your feelings away

Have you ever asked yourself
What you believe?

Find a way my friend
Find a way to be yourself
Take everything that you are
And everything that you wish that you'd become
Find a way
Just find a way

We need to find a way
To neverending happiness
I think we're on our way
But you're not taking me seriously
Find a way
Findaway.
