Give it up give it up for the big man
Throwing all of our lives around
Now it's up to him to determine
What to do with the new dirt on the ground

(Whoa oh)

Saving up trading in for the big one
Putting all the other people to shame
Take your pick what's your favorite opinion?
It doesn't matter when it's all just a game

(Whoa oh)

It's hard to believe you
When you've done nothing but lead us astray
Your days left are numbered
No matter what you say
You still act like you're worth it
And we're not saying anything at all
You're temporarily getting your way
But not for very long
Come on

It's hard to believe you
When you've done nothing but lead us astray
No matter what you say
You still act like you're worth it
When we're not saying anything at all
You're temporarily getting your way
But not for very long

What are you thinking, waving your gun around?
Who's playing hero today?
What were you thinking, waving your gun around?
Who's playing hero today?
You're nobody's hero.

It's hard to believe you
When you've done nothing but lead us astray

No matter what you say
You still act like you're worth it
When we're not saying anything at all
You're temporarily getting your way
But not for very long

Give it up give it up for the big man
Give it up give it up for the big man
