"Shot Down By The Man"

You hate the law
You're on restriction for your whole life
The stipulations always interfere, interfere
Our generation will overturn all the authority
We keep on hiding from the eyes that don't see everything

Shot down!
Shot down by the man!

You owe the world
More than everything you own combined
No one believes anything you say
You're never right
The only thing that's left to do
That means anything at all
Middle finger in the air
Scream it loud and clear!

Shot down!
Shot down by the man!
