Watch your back in this world
All the beautiful girls in the world
They all look the other way
When I'm not thinking realistically
And I'm not going out in the same suit as you

Cause they all look the same

Yeah I'm not going out in the same suit
If I look the same as you
I don't live in a pile
In a domicile
With a thousand other people
Who look like you

They all look the same

Yeah I'm not going out in the same suit
If I look the same as you
I don't live in a hole
In a so called home
With a million other people
Who think the same

They all look the same
