Every day is like an earthquake
Breaking the rules and all the regulations
Every time we throw the slower life aside
We're increasing our expectations

All the money spent on entertainment needs
You could've taken a long vacation
All the energy we waste during the week
We just convert into anticipation

You make it up
You make it real
Put into words the way you feel
And I don't have to ask you why

This friday night (whoa oh oh)
This friday night
We're out lookin for a good time
This friday night
This friday night
All that we can do is try
Until you realize...

That the keys to your heart
Are the keys to your car
No matter who you are
Now's the time to start
Will you follow if I go?
You don't have to leave
I'll tell you everything if I get home
I'll go out alone

This friday night (whoa oh oh)
This friday night
We're out lookin for a good time
This friday night (whoa oh oh)
This friday night
All that we can do is try
Until you realize...

We just saw the night fly right by

This friday night
This friday night
Everything will be alright
This friday night
