

Oh The Blood "Prophet"

You are about to experience.
The presence of the holy one.
It looks like things are changing I feel a shifting in the air.
This is a warmth that I could not forget.
Can you say the upper room?
Things are about to change for the better (2x)
Can you feel the presence of The living God?
Can you feel (2x)
I stand alone with you.
Against the sea of disbelief.
You reach and grab my hand.
And we run through.
We scream our battle cry With one hand raised to the sky.
This is our final moment.
Before we fly away (2x)
