

Oh, Hush! "Less Than Three"

I never thought we'd be here
We're together but all alone
When we said our "goodbyes"
I wasn't ready to let you go
(There's a place inside my heart)

There's a place inside my heart
Where I find you every time

Don't say we're lost
Don't say we're done
I know we'll find another way
Just stand with me
I still believe
Our love will find another way

I know you're tired of thinking
Just hear my words, stay with me
Let's start a new beginning
Forget the world, forget the past
(We deserve another chance)

There's a place inside my heart
Where I find you every time

Don't say we're lost
Don't say we're done
I know we'll find another way
Just stand with me
I still believe
Our love will find another way

Maybe we will crash and burn
And maybe this will end tonight
But maybe everything worth fighting for is worth the fight

Don't say we're lost
Don't say we're done
I know we'll find another way
Just stand with me
I still believe

Our love will find another way

Don't say we're lost

Don't say we're done

I know we'll find another way

Just stand with me

I still believe

Our love will find another way, another way, another way
