"Sun"

Without a reason left to live,
Lonely air I breathe.
And as she takes her final breath,
Yesterday becomes a memory
As I am learning to let go of the dead.

"Goodbye" she cries
As she slowly disappears into light.
She vaporized peacefully.

The silence resonates beyond
Now that she is gone.
Wish I could turn back hands of time
And die to save a thousand lives.

With fear in your eyes, the time has come,
Reveal the sun you hide.
Tears melt the ice, the time has come
When death and love collide.

My savior, I wait for her to return.
Forgive me, I killed you to save us all.

One final look into her eyes,
I watched her vaporize,
Merging with the light.

With fear in your eyes, the time has come,
Reveal the sun you hide.
Dry tears of mine, the time has come
When death and love collide.
