"If You Really, Really Want Me To"

You have lately said to me
Too many times, undoubtedly
That you and I are through.

And I will hurt me, yes I know
But I guess I've gotta let you go
If you really, really want me to.

(Refrain) If I'm not worth another try
I guess that I have to say, "good-bye."
Someday I may get over you.

It'll be the toughest thing I ever do,
But I will say, "good-bye" to you...
If you really, really want me to!

A good woman is very hard to find.
And we both know that I've been blind.
Unfortunately, too late I see!

You are one in a million, that's for sure,
But if you don't love me anymore,
I guess I'm gonna have to let you be! (repeat refrain)

(Optional)

Still I will wait till you are sure
That you don't love me anymore,
That's all there's left to do!

And if your love for me IS gone,
I'll take my broken heart, and I'll move on
If you really, really want me to!
