I am not really sure just why
You chose to say, "good-bye."
You know I am a jealous man

And I never meant to shove;
Only to fill your heart with Love
Now I'm holding on the best I can Still, as the days drag by

Sometimes I sit and cry
I miss you so much, it burns inside

I pray you soon will see
That your love was meant for me
And that you'll forget your foolish pride... I want you to

(Chorus)

Take your time, to take me back!
I know that I am an impatient man
But that's no way for me to act

And I don't want you to tell me that ya love me
Until you know that it's a fact
So take your tme... just take me back!

I have said many hurtful things
That you know I didn't mean
I've been a cruel and hateful, foolish guy

And though it may take a while
I'm sure I'll make you smile
If you just give us, another try!

Repeat (Chorus)

*last line after chorus..."Take your time... Just Hurry Back!
