Crash and burn, crash and burn, crash and burn (crash and burn)

Patience is the hallmark of the old and the infirm Lived and learned, lived and learned, lived and learned

Out lived their lust and traded want in for concern
Singing that's all right
Yeah that's all right
Aw that's all right

So come on down, come on down, come on down
(come on down)
Get out our pestilence and vice and pass them around
And blow this town blow this town blow this town
Jump off this ship before the shit just runs aground
Singin' that's all right
Aw that's all right
Aw that's all right

It's a disaster
It's an incredible mess
But it's all we've got now
Yeah it's all we got
Howling with laughter, panic
Alarm, and distress
But it's all we've got now
Yeah it's all we got

Head or tails, heads or tails, heads or tails (heads or tails)
Are you dumb enough to break the mold
Or smart enough to fail?
Oh happy trails happy trails oh happy trails
Can't beat a little bit of envy in your sails.

Singing that's all right
Yeah that's all right
Oh that's all right

But it's a disaster
It's an incredible mess

But it's all we've got now
Yeah it's all we got
Howling with laughter, panic, alarm, and distress
But it's all we've got now
Yeah it's all we got
